

Riviera Armchair

The Riviera armchair will be, without doubt, the great focus of your garden or terrace. It perfectly combines design and comfort. It's original, practical and has a lot of style, ideal for dining room sets for your home or bars and restaurants. Its steel legs give it resistance and robustness, features that we are looking for when we want to acquire a product for an utilitarian and intensive use. The seat is made up by a flexible rattan mesh which, as well as being comfortable, it gives a natural touch to the design which perfectly contrasts the manufacturing and urban touch of the steel.

Indoors and Outdoors Use.
